1 Background

- 1.1 The Scottish Boundary Commissions (we, us) means the Boundary Commission for Scotland and the Local Government Boundary Commission for Scotland, acting through their shared Secretariat.
- 1.2 Ordnance Survey and Scottish Ministers have entered into the One Scotland Mapping Agreement, intended to provide a framework for allowing use of Ordnance Survey data (and data derived therefrom) by licensed public sector bodies in Scotland. The Scottish Boundary Commissions are a licensed public sector body under that agreement.
- 1.3 The One Scotland Mapping Agreement allows licensed public sector bodies to make data available under 'Free to Use' terms. We have created this Historical Electoral Data, and Ordnance Survey has agreed that it constitutes Free to Use Data.
